

I strongly oppose the further consolidation of US media outlets into fewer and fewer hands. This is a trend that erodes the exchange of opposing viewpoints that is the bedrock of democracy, a trend that belongs more to a totalitarian society than to our own. I further deplore the speed with which the FCC is trying to effect this ill advised change. I support House Resolution 218 advocating extensive debate on this issue.